

Missouri

Disadvantaged Community (DAC)

DWSRF regulations define a disadvantaged community as one that has a population of 3,300 or less, whose decennial median household income is at or below 75 percent of the state average, and whose user rates are at or above 2 percent of the decennial median household income.